Charles City Preschoolers Get Books

Williamsburg, Virginia (4/72026) – QuickStart Children of Virginia (QCV) is pleased to report the preschoolers at Charles City Elementary School recently received a copy of Biscuit Plays Ball through our Racquets for Reading!!! initiative, with more books to come before the end of the school year.

Preschool teacher Kelly Orrell, says, “The books came in. We gave a set out today. I’m attaching some photos. As we give them out, we’ll continue to send photos. Thank you again for your generosity!”

Lynda Harrill, QCV Founder, adds, “Love these kids. Whether they are learning to play tennis or learning to read, they are a pleasure to be with. As Charles City Elementary includes three-year-olds in their Virginia Preschool Initiative classrooms, I’ve been able to spend two school years with some of these kids. Evelyn (bottom photo, middle of first row), a second-year preschooler, is always the first to greet me with leg hugs. It gives me so much pleasure to be able to work with kids like these. They’re full of joy, appreciation, lots of fun and so much potential!”

Be a QuickStart kid!

QuickStart Tennis of Central Virginia, Inc. (aka QuickStart Children of Virginia) is an all-volunteer, grassroots Community Tennis Association established in 2009 as a 501(c)(3) charitable organization to promote, develop and grow QuickStart Tennis in Virginia for all beginners, especially underserved and at-risk youth, using the kid-sized QuickStart Tennis format. We leverage the fun of tennis to promote lifelong physical activity, healthy eating/lifestyle habits and a love of reading in the communities we serve. We believe early childhood literacy will solve many socioeconomic problems and produce kids who will succeed in school and in life.
